

ROUTINE FEATURES TO DISCUSS CODE OF CONDUCT

Monday morning assembly

Monday morning assembly, a regular and important feature of the college, is a subtle manifestation of the collective consciousness and purposeful education of KMV. The national flag is hoisted and national songs —“Vande Matram” and “Jan Gan Man” are sung with nationalistic fervor. Khadi uniform, synonymous with freedom struggle and empowerment of women is still worn on Mondays. It is compulsory for all students to come in white Khadi uniform (White Khadi suit and White Muslin Dupatta). The national fabric and pride of India, Khadi serves as a great equalizer, enthuses the students with the essence of our rich, vibrant cultural heritage and inculcates patriotism. Above all, this assembly of heterogeneous students in white khadi, while creating a feeling of belonging, a spirit of oneness and nurturing everlasting bonds subtly manifests and promotes secularism and social equity.

Thought for the Day is given to instill values among students and arouse the intellectual, moral and social consciousness of students. The thought provoking ‘Pearls of Wisdom’ and the collective counselling prepares every student to raise herself intellectually and morally so as to face the stern realities of life with confidence and courage. Each student of the college is expected to look on herself as the ambassador of the college and conduct herself with dignity that is worthy of the institution.

