

Native App Development using Kotlin Android

Duration: 45 Hours (in 45 Working Days)

Credits: 2 Marks: 50

Everything is Mobile based these days, from shopping to movie tickets, railway tickets to groceries, health care to stock exchange. The candidates , after doing this course , will be working as Android developer with companies and as freelancers. Startups are also offering jobs to Android developers.

Students will learn various UI Designs and Layouts of Activities in Android applications, the Activity and Fragment Lifecycle of Android application, manage linked data in the form of shared preferences and database and apply knowledge to develop Android Applications.

Placement Opportunities: Every organization where mobile apps could be useful like gaming, reservations, accounting, health care, hotels and restaurants, travel & tourism, online learning, stock markets etc.