Department
of
Textile Design and Apparel Technology
Celebrated National Handloom day on 6th August 2022

OBJECTIVES-

To guide the students about textiles of different states in terms of printing, weaving and surfaceembellishment. So that they can use the trditional textiles into thecustomise products according the present market demand.

BENEFITS OF LEARNING- Tokeep the textile Heritage alive and create awareness of Handloom fabrics. This day is celebrated by the students of Textile Design and Apparel Technology Along with P.G Department of Fashion Designing for the integrity of Handloom community and recognise their contribution towards India's socio-economic development. The purpose of the activity was to protect and promote the Handloom heritage among the young generation. As a part of celebrations, exhibition cum sale of handloom fabrics were held at the college campus. Students displayed their handloom products prepared by them by using different handloom techniques like cushion covers, bags, tapestries, table runners, rugs, pot holders etc. Department of Textile Design and Apparel Technology And P.G Department of Fashion Designing is continuously promoting the Handloom culture as a part of their syllabi. It was an enriching and creative activity for the students.

EXHIBITION DIWALI EXTRAVAGANZA, 2022

Objective: To provide the students a platform where they can showcase their talent and creativity through handmade articles and to help instill entrepreneurial skills in them

Date: October 15 and 16

Day: Saturday and Sunday

Venue: Virsa Vihar

Description: Kanya Maha Vidyalaya- the Heritage & Autonomous Institution, Jalandhar organized two days annual Exhibition-Cum-sale at Virsa Vihar by the P.G. Department of Fashion Designing on October 15 and 16. This exhibition proudly claims to have been holding city level exhibition cum sale every year consecutively.

The hall was abuzz with excitement and fervour as it showcased the handicrafts in their myriad hues. The display ranged from bed sheets, hand-painted suits and sarees, kurtis, jewellery, mirrors, candles, macrame boxes, tea coasters and many more. Being from the textile backgrounds, the main focus of the students was on Textile hand-made articles. The students of B.Voc Textile Design & Apparel Technology showed their creativity and talent in making different articles. The exhibition provided the right platform for students to showcase the varied and beautiful articles and the exquisite paintings done by them. It was a great opportunity for students to sell their hand made products and generate good income from it.

This exhibition cum sale of products made by the students is a first step in showcasing their talent and also medium of their empowerment. It will also provide an opportunity to these participants to have their work displayed for a large number of potential viewers. This exhibition cum sale provided an excellent opportunity for them to take a step forward in developing their skills to become an entrepreneur.

Students of P.G. Department of Retail Management used their skill for selling these handmade products. As well as the budding entrepreneurs of Beauty and Wellness also sold handmade organic beauty products and soaps.

The event was a great success in terms of a wide variety of mouth – watering delicacies and the creative decoration of each stall .The young chefs of Nutrition Exercise and Health department beautifully showcased variety of dishes like – cookies ,candies, laddoo ,chocolates, etc.

Overall it was a good learning experience for the students to acquire entrepreneurial skills, which helped the students learn teamwork, collaboration and creativity.

Report SUKRITI Innovative & Sustainable Fashion Show 2023

OBJECTIVE: To support and encourage the students to showcase their work and learn about the various techniques of painting, Printing and stitching and Modeling.

BENEFITS:

A fashion show SUKRITI 2023 has been organized by the P.G department of Fashion Designing. Fashion Show provides opportunity for innovative designers and artists to display their work among the public to spread awareness about new arrivals and style. During the activity students learn to construct fabric with traditional screen printing, vibrant colored threads and hand embroidery. Students showcased their artistic abilities and expertise by creating various types of clothing through this show.

With the help of these types of fashion shows, students can advertise their craftsmanship and design. They can attract as many customers or business partners as possible and develop cooperative relationships

Fashion show helped the students in gaining various views about different designs and styles of clothing. Our students created prototype outfits to inculcate with new experiments and innovation. They prepared western, Traditional, formal and semi formal outfits with bold and beautiful colours to showcases balance between formal and elegant look. They played with different kinds of silhouettes and styles.

On the other hand, the students worked with Hand-painting to revive the Indian traditional art. Fashion show also helped them to gain knowledge to incorporate ideas into their boutiques. Students got an opportunity to attain lot of stuff and learn several things out of the show.
