SOFT SKILLS & COMMUNICATION

Paper-V

Time Allowed—3 Hours]

[Maximum Marks—50

Note : Question No. I is compulsory.

- I. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Some forty years ago, I began to realize that shooting wild animals no longer gave me pleasure; it was too much of one-sided game, in which the wretched creatures had little chance against the modern rifle. Beyond the difficulties of stalking, everything was too easy and lacking in excitement. Then also, it seemed all wrong to kill a harmless animal just for fun. I even hate to see anything shot— and yet I wanted to hunt, wanted the joy of being out of doors and seeing the various birds and beasts in their natural wild states, in all their natural beauty. But merely seeing them was not quite enough. I wanted to bring home some proof of what I had seen. Making sketches, even though I happened to be an artist, was not very satisfactory- and certainly not very easy; thus it was that I turned to the camera. Here was a weapon that would shoot without hurting, certainly without killing, and yet give me the trophies of the chase.

Questions :

- (i) Why did shooting animals no longer give the author pleasure ?
