KMV Computer Club Celebrates Eco-Friendly Diwali

To celebrate colours of green and pollution free Diwali, KMV's Computer club organized different events in the IT department. The first event was poster making competition. Department students made posters based on the themes: Avoid crackers and celebrate nature, Eco friendly and pollution free Diwali and Green and clean Diwali. 50 students were participated in the competition. Next, competition was Power point competition. The topic of the presentation was "Ideas to celebrate eco- friendly Diwali". Students impressively presented their ideas to celebrate green and clean Diwali. Meghdeep of BCA Sem V, Deepali of M.Voc. (Animation) Sem I and Khushi Sharma of B.Voc. (AI and DS) Sem III bagged the first, second, third positions in the poster making competition. KMV Collegiate Sr. Sec. School students Jasmeet Kaur 10+2 (Arts), Kritika 10+1 (Arts) and Harnoor 10+1 (Arts) bagged the first, second, third positions in the poster making competition. Meghdeep of BCA Sem V and Bhawana Devi of B.Sc. (IT) Sem V bagged the first position, Tannu Suman of BCA Sem III and Khushi of B.Voc. (AI and DS) Sem III bagged the second position, Sukhnandan and Rama Minhas bagged the third position in the Power point competition. Prof. Atima Sharma Dwivedi, Principal applauded the tireless efforts of Dr. Suman Khurana, Head department of Computer Sc. & Appls. and Dr. Ravi Khurana, Incharge, Computer Club for successfully organizing these competitions.

KMV fraternity celebrate Diwali with fervour & zeal

Students spread awareness about eco friendly Diwali through posters and power point presentations

Jalandhar-Harpreet Singh Lehal

Principal of Kanya Maha Vidyalaya (Autonomous) Prof. Dr. Atima Sharma Dwivedi extended best wishes to the staff members and students on the occasion of Diwali. While addressing everyone, she talked about celebrating this festival with peace and mutual love, while expressing concern regarding environmental pollution, she also appealed everyone to celebrate a pollution-free eco-friendly Diwali. She also wished that this festival of lights brings joy, success and prosperity in everyone's life. She averred that this whole year has been full of achievements for KMV and it is wished that this success story of KMV should continue always. On this occasion, flowers were also presented to Madam Principal by all the staff members. Apart from this, activities like poster making and power point presentation were also organised by the computer club of KMV with the aim of spreading the message of celebrating green and pollution free Diwali. Through their posters, the students created awareness about celebrating the festival of Diwali by keeping the environment clean, free from firecrackers, and also shared information about various ways of celebrating eco-friendly Diwali through power point presentations. In the poster making competition, Meghdeep stood first, Deepali second and Khushi Sharma third, while Jasmeet Kaur, Kritika and Harnoor got first, second and third position respectively among the collegiate students. Along with this, Meghdeep got first place, Tanusuman and Khushi jointly got second and Sukhnandan and Rama Minhas jointly got third position in power point presentation competition. While congratulating all the winning students, Madam Principal lauded the efforts of Dr. Suman Khurana, Head, PG Department of Computer Science, Dr. Ravi Khurana, Incharge, Computer Club for successfully organising the event.
