The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. The main window displays a presentation slide titled "Flipped Learning Modules". The slide contains a bulleted list of five points:

- Short 2-4 minute videos created by faculty
- Students watch the videos during or before class
- Built-in learning exercises
- Students learn course concepts outside class
- Apply learning in class

To the right of the text is a video thumbnail showing a woman speaking in front of a presentation screen. The screen displays the text "Why Give Visual Presentations?" and "To present your ideas, your research, or your product supported by visual elements that inform, motivate, or persuade." Below the thumbnail is the "BOSTON UNIVERSITY" logo. The Zoom interface includes a top menu bar with options like Media, Playback, Audio, Video, Subtitle, Tools, View, and Help. On the right side, there is a vertical strip of participant video thumbnails. At the bottom, there is a taskbar with various application icons and a system tray showing the time as 1:30 PM on 26-Aug-20.

But in many respects very different consequences.

No way to find out ONE solution.
A real challenge: threat, problems and opportunities,
