REPORT
ON
Workshop on VC FUNDING OPPORTUNITY FOR EARLY STAGE
ENTREPRENEURS

18.08.2022

One-day session on VC Funding Opportunity for Early Stage Entrepreneurs was organized by Department of Retail Management under DDU-KK on 18th August ,2022 to enlighten students and faculties about Angel Investment/VC Funding Opportunity for Early Stage Entrepreneurs.

Session started by welcome address and speaker introduction by Miss. Madhuri Tiwari. The Resource Person for the session was Mrs Ankita Kapoor Basin, Branch Head, Central Bank of India. She also guided the students about Venture capital financing upscales your business. Attaining VC funding is a great advantage for startups as it helps not only in funding your business and injecting cash but also through opening new doors and new opportunities for your business growth.

Mrs. Ankita also explain that it is important to explore and understand the full range of options available to an entrepreneur. Luckily, there are still options for funding new companies, but finding and securing the cash will take careful research, good negotiating skills, and, above all, dedicated commitment to launch your business. Few options for raising funds by start-ups are provided below:

- 1) Crowd funding
- 2) Preferred stock and convertible deb
- 3) Angel investment
- 4) Venture capital

Mrs. Ankita Kapoor Basin very nicely with examples explained various important terms related to the talk. Finally, he talked about Angel Investment and Venture Capital funds, how to apply, eligibility criteria, what not to do while filling applications and various legal concepts associated with the two terms. Overall, session was short but covered important concepts necessary to begin a startup.

Miss. Madhuri Tiwari gave vote of thanks and closed the session.

Sub: Permission to conduct one-day workshop

Respected Madam

This is to bring to your kind notice that we are organising a one-day workshop on the topic "The Art of Visual Merchandising" on September 20, 2022 for the students of B.Voc. and M.Voc. (Retail Management). Kindly allow us to conduct the same and oblige.

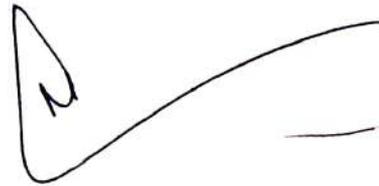

Thanking You

Yours sincerely

Dr. Rashmi Sharma

HoD, PG Dept. of Retail Management

Dated: 20/09/2022

Report
On
Workshop on "The Art of Visual Merchandising"
(20.09.2022)

One-day session on Art of Visual Merchandising was organised by Department of Retail Management of Kanya Maha Vidyalaya Under DDU-KK on 20th September, 2022 for students to guide them about how the Visual Merchandising practice in the retail industry optimizing the presentation of products and services to better highlight their features and benefits. The resource person of this session was Mrs. Chetna (Faculty of Retail Management).

Mrs. Chetna Nayyar explained that the purpose of such visual merchandising is to attract, engage, and motivate the customer towards making a purchase. She explained the students that Visual merchandising communicates with customers through elements that stimulate their senses, such as lighting, music, aromas, and television screens. She explained the students about retail operations is the term used to describe all the activities that keep the store functioning well. It includes people management, supply chain, store layout, cash operations, physical inventory, master data management, promotions and pricing, and so on.

She explained that Visual merchandising involves distinct elements that work in conjunction to help retailers create a unique experience for shoppers. They are –

- Color is King
- Maximum Display
- Storytelling
- Empty Spaces
- Point of Focus
- Landscaping
- Lighting
- Texture
- Décor

She explained with examples that all types of retail stores can benefit from visual merchandising some of the key benefits include that it reflects your brand, engages the shoppers, grow sales. She also explained about the various types of tools used in Visual Merchandising like planogram, mannequins, lights, banners, floor map, signs etc.

She also explained about the principles of visual merchandising that include make the merchandise visible, make the merchandise tangible and accessible, and give the shoppers good choice. She also explained about the visual merchandiser that how he captures consumer attention through the placement of merchandise, signage and interior displays in retail stores and shopping malls. She explained about the responsibility of visual merchandiser. She explained about the problems related to visual merchandising and how to resolve them.

Prof. Dr. Atima Sharma Dwivedi applauded Department of Retail Management for organizing regular counselling session to acquainted the students with valuable knowledge that help students make informed decisions about their career. Dr. Rashmi Sharma (HoD, Retail Management Department) expressed gratitude towards the Principal for motivating and guiding the college faculty to organize such sessions which would help students achieve greater heights of success.

The resource person of this session was Ms. Priya (Faculty of Retail Management).

She explained that students about retail operations is the term used to describe all the activities that keep the store functioning well. It includes people management, supply chain, store layout, cash operations, physical inventory, master data management, promotions and pricing, and so on.

store operations includes many aspects, such as store design, display placement, customer service, money and credit handling, shoplifting prevention, premises maintenance, staff management, inventory optimization, and dealing with the entire supply chain that leads to having products in the store.

She also explained six sections that provide a more detailed overview of responsibilities that may fall under the field of retail store operations: -

- Design
- Customer Service
- Cash, Fraud, and Internal Controls
- Product Inventory
- Administration
- Store Management

She explained about how to improve retail operation processes-

- Digitise internal processes
- Automate manual retail processes
- Create a seamless omnichannel experience
- Accept customer feedback
- Merchandising
- Workforce optimization

She explained about core functions of retail operations include customer service, store management, inventory management, payments and processing. She explained the core operations with suitable examples. She also explained about retail operations job prospective include inventory managers, retail managers, operations coordinator, logistic specialist, director of operations etc.

The session concluded after a question and answer session in which students interacted with the resource person to learn different aspects of visual merchandising. It was an informative session with valuable takeaways for all.

REPORT
On
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS IN RETAIL
28.10.2022

A session on "INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS IN RETAIL" was organized on by the Department of Retail Management. The resource person of this session was Ms. Aditi Sharma. She explained that as retail is one of the fastest-growing industries, the retailers are making sure all client requirements are fulfilled to the core. The innovative retail software solutions aim towards providing an engaging user experience along with maximized productivity and profitability.

She also explained about multi-channel retailing is a business strategy of using multiple channels for selling similar products across different platforms. She also explained the types of multi-channel retailing include:-

- Brick and mortar
- Internet channel
- Direct selling
- Catalogue channels

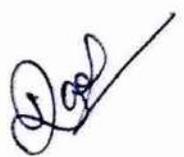

She explained about data warehouse is a data warehouse is constructed by integrating data from multiple heterogeneous sources that support analytical reporting, structured and/or ad hoc queries, and decision making. Data warehousing involves data cleaning, data integration, and data consolidations. She explained that data base management serves as an interface between databases and users or application programs, ensuring that data is consistently organized and remains easily accessible. Data base management makes it possible for end users to create, protect, read, update and delete data in a database.

She also discussed about Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) is a technology that uses radio waves to passively identify a tagged object. She explained that it is used in several commercial and industrial applications, from tracking items along a supply chain to keeping track of items checked out of a store. She discussed about operations of RFID and there are two types of RFID tags includes

- Active tags
- Passive tags

She explained about retail customer relationship management system enables us to collect and store customer information and profile of customers, such as their most recent purchase, important dates, phone numbers, and other contact details. This also aids retailers in identifying demand and generating more revenue, as well as improving consumers' experience at their store. She also discussed about e -crm tools and their applications

- Operational CRM
- Analytical CRM
- Collaborative CRM

At the end of the session students apprised with valuable knowledge about the application of IT in the retail industry ensures the business' ability to cope with challenges and respond to setbacks that arise during customer relations. It was an interactive session with valuable takeaways for all.

Report
On
Workshop on "Key Steps to a Better Slide Deck"
21.10.2022

"A person without a plan is lost before they start." This quote stands true for many aspects of life, but especially for making a presentation that's powerful and memorable. The one-day session on "Key Steps to a Better Slide Deck" was organized by the Department of Retail Management for the students to guide them about tips and tricks to help you better plan your presentations.

The resource person of this session was Mrs. Megha Sharma. She explained that choose a font size that the audience can read from a distance. She also explained that keep the presentation simple. Don't use too much pictures as art work may distract your audience and artistry does not substitute for content. She also explained that a presentation can quickly become boring and monotonous. To avoid this, it is advisable to use different types of media. She also gave example that, combine videos and flipcharts, use the whiteboard, or show something practical on a model. This will increase the attention of your audience enormously and will help in keeping them engaged until the end.

She explained that always try to keep the attention of your audience and keep them engaged during a presentation. She explained the way to do this is to ask questions. Deliberately ask "easy" questions so that can easily be answered by your audience. She also explained that choose color carefully for a presentation. The two-colour schemes that she suggests to use in presentation slides are either a dark background with light text and graphics or a light background with dark text and graphics.

She also explained that don't read the presentation straight from the slides. She suggest that the text should be a cue for the presenter rather than a message for the viewer. She also suggests ways how can we keep the audience's attention, not get sucked into reading from the slides, and make this presentation our own-

- Write your own notes
- Practice, practice, practice

She also explained that keep your presentations under 15 minutes. Because the average attention span of an adult is 17 minutes. She suggests that give your audience a break after 15 minutes – this could be a short pair work exercise, a round of questions, an audience-led review of what you have covered so far, or simply ask them to change seats! Using two presenters is a good idea as people's concentration increases every time they change their focus to a new speaker

She also explained that follow the 5/5/5 rule to keep your audience from feeling overwhelmed, we should keep the text on each slide short and to the point. The experts suggest using the 5/5/5 rule: no more than five words per line of text, five lines of text per slide, or five text-heavy slides in a row.

At the end of the session students apprised with valuable knowledge about best tips for professional presentation-making and a step-by-step guide on how to make a presentation that will keep the audience engaged from start to finish. It was an informative session with valuable knowledge for all.

WORKSHOP ON "EMERGING RETAIL FORMAT AND STRATEGIES"

(11-11-2022)

The P.G. Department of Retail Management of Kanya Maha Vidyalaya (Autonomous) organised one day session on 11 November 2022 on the title "Emerging Retail Format and Strategies". The resource person of this session was Ms. Rajbeer Kaur. She explained that the improvement in retail sector in India, especially the modern retail formats, its attribute, type of goods and impact of consumers' demography on choice of emerging retail formats.

She explained that that consumers prefer modern retail formats due to its significant product attributes like improved quality, variety of brands and assortment of merchandise and store attributes like parking facility, trained sales personnel and complete security. She also explained that consumers prefer malls and specialty store to purchase various shopping goods like clothing, footwear and jewellery.

She explained about some of the important emerging retail formats are van/mobile van retailing, conference/party/event retailing, distant retailing, forecourt retailing, trade parks etc.

She explained that the internet has changed the way products are advertised and the manner of selling-buying transactions. She discussed about some of modern innovations in retail .

She explained that modern retail businesses such as malls, specialty stores, and hypermarkets are using micro development and contemporary technology to increase customers' shopping experience and in turn generate business revenue. She also explained about e-tailing process includes the customer's visit to the website, purchasing products by choosing a mode of payment, product delivery by the retailer and finally, the customer's review or feedback.

She explained about various retail formats include –

- Malls
- Convenience stores
- Department store
- Discount stores
- Speciality stores
- Hyper Market

She also explained about retail strategies include competitive pricing and public relation. She also explained that on the other hand, retailers of department stores, discount stores and convenience stores prefer promotional strategies and pricing strategies more, as compared to other strategies for improving their business.

She explained about promotional strategies composed of customer segmentation, personal selling, advertisement, entertainment facilities, private label brands and after sales services are preferred more than pricing strategies comprising of free gifts, discounting options and festival offers. She also explained that that modern retail formats i.e. malls, hyper/supermarket and specialty stores have high inclination towards retention strategies, competitive strategies and growth and development strategies.

At the end of the session, she said that the retail market landscape has seen significant changes in retail trends and shifts in consumer behaviour since the coronavirus breakout, but the industry now appears more optimistic about the growth prospects. It was such an informative session for students with valuable knowledge.
